

INDEX

- Adams, Thos., publisher of The birth of mankind, 23, 35-6.
- Aesop, Les subtiles fables d'Esop, étude sur l'illustration, par C. Dalbanne et E. Droz, reviewed, 271.
- Almanachs and Prognostications* (English), by E. F. Bosanquet, Author's Corrigenda and Addenda, 456-77.
- Annals of English Printing*, plans for rearranging entries of Short-Title Catalogue (-1640), &c., 388.
- Antonio de Espinosa, first type-founder in Mexico and in America, 120-2.
- Apprentices, regulations as to, in Stationers' Company, 399 sq.
- Arbitrations in Stationers' Company, 405.
- Aristotle's Dialectica, Mexico, 1554, has copy of Whitechurch compartment, 303.
- Armourer to Stationers' Company, his salary, 403.
- Askewe (or Askell), James, fined for refusing offices in Stationers' Company, 399.
- Askham, Anthony, almanac (1548, &c.) described, 464-6.
- Audley, Tobias, and Anne Elsdon, their story in Keep the widow waking, 43-55.
- Authorship, help asked for checking assignments in Short-Title Catalogue, 383 sq.
- Bade, Josse, influenced by Basle printers, 356, 357, 359-60.
- Baker, E. A., his The Uses of Libraries reviewed, 370-1.
- Bannatyne Miscellany*, The, source of information for early Scottish printing, 145-6 and f.n.
- Barker, C., his quarrels with Tottell, 211, 218-19, 225-9, with Kingston, 424 sq.
- Barksted, Wm., authorship of Marston's The Insatiate Countess ascribed to, 342-3, 347.
- Barlow, T. D., review of Greek printing types, 1465-1927, 361-4.
- Barrow, Dr. Thomas, bequest to the University of Cambridge, 261.
- Basle ornaments on Paris books, 1519-36*, by A. F. Johnson, 355-60 (illus.).
- Bassandyne, T., inventory of his books, 157-69; his New Testament, 148.
- Beale, J. H., his Bibliography of early English law books reviewed, 135-8.
- Bible, reading forbidden in Scotland, 147; first printed there, 148; translations allowed, 149-50.
- Bibliographical Society, Annual Meeting, 1927, 38; reasons for its arranging to sell the Short-Title Catalogue to non-members, 381.
- Birth of mankind, The, or the woman's book: a bibliographical study*, paper by Sir D'Arcy Power, 1-37; MS. of translation still extant, 2-3; translated from Rösslin's Rosengarten, 2; printed editions, 3-30; title-pages, 4-6, 8, 11-12, 14, 17-18, 20-7; illustrations discussed, 5, 10; facsimiles of prologue, 13, 15, 19; notes on printers and publishers, 31-7; devices and borders on title-pages, 4, 16, 22, 28.
- Blocking entry in the Stationers' Register, 274, 279-80.
- Bodleian Library, helps Short-Title Catalogue, 378; the use of its printed Catalogue in Oxford college libraries, 381.
- Boler, James, sells The birth of mankind, 28, 36-7.
- Bollert, M., his Lederschneitbände des XIV. Jahrhunderts reviewed, 138-41.
- Bonser, W., review of new ed. of Halkett and Laing's Dict. of anon. and pseud. Eng. literature, 142-4.
- Book-bill of Samuel Hart in seventeenth century, 189-91.
- Book Prices Current*, its use in checking statements as to the rarity of books, 382.

- Books and readers*, 1591-4, paper by G. B. Harrison, 273-302.
- Books of Fellows of Merton to remain College property, 314-15.
- Booksellers, their help asked for improving Short-Title Catalogue, 383 sqq.
- Bosanquet, E. F., Corrigenda and Addenda to his monograph on English Printed Almanacks and Prognostications, 456-77.
- Bowes, Ralph, Master of the Bears, holder of privilege for playing cards, 419.
- Brettie, Robt. E., paper on Bibliographical notes on some Marston quartos and early collected editions, 336-48.
- British Academy, Proceedings of, 1924-5, reviewed, 271-2.
- British Museum, its Catalogue of English Books to 1646 constituted a bibliographical period, 378.
- British Museum Quarterly* II, 1, reviewed, 373-4.
- Burgundy, Caxton a negotiator with, 439 sqq.
- Burman, Kaspar, Caxton documents quoted from his Utrechtse Jaarboeken (1750), 431-5.
- Bursar as Library official at Merton College, 313, 314, 316, 322.
- Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy, fifth edition printed at Edinburgh, London and Oxford, 191.
- Byrom, H. J., paper on Richard Tottell—his life and work, 199-232.
- Cambridge University Press, and John Siberch, paper by G. J. Gray, 260-3; true date of its start, 260; charter obtained for printing, 263.
- Campbell, W. E., his ed. of More's Dialogue reviewed, 493 sq.
- Cancels and stubs*, paper by R. W. Chapman, 264-8.
- Carr or Carre, James, almanac-maker, 459-61, 469.
- Catalogues, early, of Merton College Library, 332-3.
- Cathkin, J., and his troubles over book-selling, 180-1.
- Cawood, John, printed (with Jugge) The birth of mankind, 11, 35.
- Caxton Documents, paper by W. J. Blyth Crotch, 426-55.
- Caxton, William, paper on Caxton Documents, by W. J. Blyth Crotch; 426-55; summary of documents given by Blades and the new ones here printed, 426-8.
- Censorship, exercised through Stationers' Company, 417 sq.
- Chained books at Merton College, 313, 315.
- Chapman, G., his libellous plays, 39, 41.
- Chapman, R. W., paper on Cancels and stubs, 264-8.
- Charities in Stationers' Company, 406.
- Charteris, H., English books in his stock, 179-80.
- Chew, B., his Essays and verses about books reviewed, 133-5.
- Cholmeley, Ranulf, and law printers, 200-2, 221-2.
- Collins, Rich., clerk to Stationers' Co., fined for refusing Rentership, 399.
- Cologne, Caxton's stay at (1471-2), 437.
- Copyright in news obtained by entry in Stationers' Reg. before writing, 280-3.
- Cornell University Library: Catalogue of the Icelandic collection . . . Additions 1913-26*, compiled by H. Hermannson, reviewed, 369.
- Corn-money, paid by Stationers' Company, 411 sq.
- Cosyn, Robert, Caxton's English property assigned to, 429.
- Croke, Richard, probable patron of John Siberch, 263.
- Cromberger, Juan, monopoly of Mexican printing, 307-8.
- Cronycle of yeres*, A, 1541-61, contain tables of roads in England and Wales, 349-50.
- Crotch, W. J. Blyth, paper on Caxton Documents, 426-55.

- Danter, Widow, pension from Stationers' Company, 408.
- Dating, note on wrong dating of Marian Statutes, 375; of Elizabeth's Injunctions, 425; help asked for improving dates assigned in Short-Title Catalogue, 384 sq.; the varying meanings of queried dates, 386 sq.
- Dawson, Thos., prints The birth of mankind, 23, 36; dispute with Denham as to right to print private prayers, 420.
- Day, John, his privileged books, 422.
- Dekker, Thos., paper by Dr. Sisson on his lost play, Keep the widow waking, 39-57, 233-59; answer to complaint and deposition, 257-9 and plate.
- Digges, Leonard, discovery of his attainder (1554) and death c. 1559 (not 1571), 456-8; almanac corrected by his son, 473-4.
- Dover Chronicles, 98-100, 102-3.
- Dover Priory, The library of: its catalogue and extant volumes, paper by C. R. Haines, 73-118; history of, 73; triple catalogue, 74; fate of library, 115-18.
- Draper, Thomas, draws exhibition from Stationers' Company, 406.
- Drapers acting as printers, 405.
- Drummond of Hawthornden and Michael Drayton, 196-7.
- Dryden, J., type-facsimile reprint of his Annus Mirabilis reviewed, 368.
- Dyson, Humphrey, instance of the rarity of the news pamphlets he collected, 386 sq.
- Edinburgh books in a catalogue of 1631, 193-4.
- Edinburgh printers and stationers (-1640), Relations between London and*, paper by F. S. Ferguson, 145-98; reasons for scarcity of books in Scotland, 147-8, 151.
- Editions, size of, 414.
- Electio librorum*, 316-18, 320-1, 323-9.
- Elsdon, Anne, the victim in Keep the widow waking, 43-55, 233-4.
- England probably first to publish the germ of a 'Road-book', 352.
- Erra Pates, almanacs by, described, 472.
- Estienne, Chas., published first regular road-book and itinerary, 352.
- Fawn, The*, by Marston, bibliographical notes on, 337-8.
- Ferguson, F. S., paper on Relations between London and Edinburgh printers and stationers (-1640), 145-98.
- Fines for refusal of office in Stationers' Company, 398 sq.
- Fire-arms v. archery, controversy in print, 289.
- Fiske Icelandic collection, Catalogue of additions, 1913-26, reviewed, 369.
- Forbidden books in Scotland, 154-6.
- Ford, John, as collaborator with Dekker, 243, 247-8.
- Fordham, Sir H. G., paper on The earliest tables of the highways of England and Wales, 1541-61, 349-54, with facsimiles.
- Fox, John, privilege for his Book of Martyrs, 422.
- Garrod, H. W., paper on The library regulations of a medieval college, 312-35.
- Gascoigne, George, date of his Poesies, 123-4, 128-9; copies confiscated, 415.
- Geneva, Almanac assigned to, traced to the 4th Geneva Bible (1570), 461-2.
- Gossenne, G., almanac-maker, 459, 468.
- Gourlaw, R., list of his English books, 169-78.
- Gourmont, Gilles de, and the Basle designs, 356, 360, and plate 4.
- Grace Book entries relating to Siberch, 261-3.
- Graf, Urs, designer of woodcut decorations of Basle books, 355-8, and plates 1 and 2, 360.
- Grafton, Richard, his road-tables of 1570, 353; almanac and tables (1599 ed.), described, 476.
- Gray, G. J., paper on The Cambridge University Press and John Siberch, 260-3.

- Greek printing types, 1465-1927; with introduction by V. Scholderer, reviewed by T. D. Barlow, 361-4.
- Greek type in Paris influenced by Basle and Italy, 359-60.
- Greene, R., and his conny-catching pamphlets, 274, 275-6, 295-7.
- Greg, W. W., paper on The Decrees and Ordinances of the Stationers' Company (1576-1602), 395-425; answer to B. M. Ward on A hundreth sundrie flowres, 127-30; review of Proceedings of the British Academy, 1924-5, 271-2.
- Haebler, K., his Handbuch der Inkunabelkunde reviewed, 141-2.
- Haines, C. R., paper on The Library of Dover Priory: its catalogue and extant volumes, 73-118.
- Halkett, S., and J. Laing, review of new edition of their Dictionary by J. Kennedy, &c., 142-4.
- Hansards, Caxton's share in treaty with, 439-43, 446-8; action on behalf of, 456.
- Harmsworth, Sir Leicester, helps Short-Title Catalogue, 379; gift of duplicates to British Museum, 394.
- Harrison, G. B., paper on Books and readers, 1591-4, 273-302.
- Harrison, John, fined for selling Edinburgh ed. of Sidney's Arcadia, 404.
- Hart, Andrew, and his Edinburgh books, 182-3, 194, 196-7.
- Harvey-Nashe quarrel, pamphlets of, entries in Stationers' Register, 274, 275-7, 295-7.
- Heretical books forbidden in Scotland, 148.
- Highways of England and Wales*, 1541-61, The earliest tables of the, paper by Sir H. G. Fordham, 349-54 (illus.).
- Hodgkins, R., author of ballad Keep the widow waking, 233-5, 250-2.
- Holbeins, designers of woodcut decorations of Basle books, 355, 357, and plate 3.
- Holles, Sir Gervase, his motto used in A hundreth sundrie flowres, 124-5, 129.
- Horman, Wm., review of M. R. James's edition of his Vulgaria, 131-3.
- Hortop, Job, bibliographical problem of his Trauayles to Gynnye, 284-5.
- Hundreth sundrie flowres*, A, letter on, from B. M. Ward, and Dr. Greg's answer, 123-30.
- Huntington Library, helps Short-Title Catalogue, 379.
- Hutchins, H. C., paper on Two hitherto unrecorded editions of Robinson Crusoe, 58-72.
- Insatiate Countess, The*, by Marston, bibliographical notes on, 338-43.
- Italic type in Paris influenced by Basle and Italy, 359-60.
- Jackson, John, a grocer member of Eliot's Court printing house, 400.
- James I, his metrical translation of the Psalms, 197; English books in his library (1573-83), 153-4.
- James, M. R., work on the Library of Dover Priory, 74; his edition of Horman's Vulgaria reviewed, 131-3.
- Jesuit missions in Paraguay first type-founders in America, 119.
- Johnson, A. F., paper on Basle ornaments on Paris books, 1519-36, 355-60 (illus.).
- Johnson, Samuel, edition by R. W. Chapman of his Rasselas, reviewed, 367-8.
- Jonas, Richard, translator of Rösslin's Rosengarten, 1, 3.
- Journeymen, rules as to, in Stationers' Company, 401.
- Juchhoff, R., his Drucker- und Verlegerzeichen des XV. Jahrhunderts . . . , reviewed, 270.
- Judson, John, one of first publishers of Road-tables, 350-1.
- Jugge, Richard, prints (with J. Cawood) five editions of The birth of mankind, 11, 16-17, 22, 34.
- Keep the widow waking: a lost play by Dekker*, paper by C. Siesson, 39-57, 233-59; text of ballad on subject, 238-40.

- Kilwardby, Abp., his Ordinances for Merton College Library, 313-15.
- Kingston, John, infringes Barker's right to print Queen's Injunctions, 425.
- Knight, C. C., his Business man's guide to printing noticed, 368.
- Kyd, Thomas, and the Bruen case, 281, 290-1.
- Kynaston, Rev. W. H., helps Short-Title Catalogue as to books at Lincoln, 392 sq.
- Law-books and their printers, 200-2, 419.
- Legatt, John, sued for selling Sidney's Arcadia, 404.
- Leighton & Co., valuable addenda and corrigenda for Short-Title Catalogue in their Catalogue X, 393.
- Lekpreuk, R., and Scottish printing, 146, 150.
- Lending regulations of Merton College Library, 318-19, 330-1.
- Librarians, help they can give in improving Short-Title Catalogue, 381, 383-5.
- Library regulations of a medieval college, paper by H. W. Garrod, 312-35.
- Lincoln Cathedral, notes of Eng. books at, for Short-Title Catalogue, 392 sq.
- Lobley, William, malcontent stationer, 402, 403.
- London and Edinburgh printers and stationers (-1640), Relations between, paper by F. S. Ferguson, 145-98; Englishmen settle in Edinburgh, 152.
- London-printed books for sale in Edinburgh, 194 f.n.
- London printers monopolize trade in Bibles in Scotland, 150.
- Lottery (1585), Stationers' Company take tickets in, 413.
- Luther's books banned in Scotland, 147.
- McKerrow, R. B., his Introduction to Bibliography reviewed, 478-82; The Elements of Book-Collecting reviewed by, 488-91.
- McMurtrie, Douglas C., paper on The first type-founding in Mexico, 119-22.
- Magna Carta* and Statutes, Tottell's edition of (1556), 207-9.
- Malcontent, The, by Marston; bibliographical notes on, 336-7.
- Margoliouth, H. M., his ed. of Marvell's Poems and Letters reviewed, 491-3.
- Marian Statutes, note on dates in eds. of, by A. W. Pollard, 375-6.
- Marston quartos and early collected editions, Bibliographical notes on some, paper by R. E. Brettell, 336-48.
- Marvell, And., ed. by H. M. Margoliouth of his Poems and Letters reviewed, 491-3.
- Maunsell, Andrew, Catalogue, Scottish books in, 192-3; grant for, by Stationers' Company, 412.
- Mecklenburg, The history of, bibliographical peculiarities of, 266-8.
- Medical books published 1591-4, 292-3.
- Merton College, Oxford, library regulations, 312-35.
- Mexico, The first type-founding in, paper by D. C. McMurtrie, 119-22.
- Mexico, introduction of printing into, 307-9; list of early printers, 308-9.
- Mexico City, imprint of 1770, has first reference to type-founding there, 119.
- Middleton, Wm. See Myddylton.
- Military manuals of Elizabethan times, 288-9.
- Millar, Eric, his Eng. Illuminated MSS. of the 14th and 15th centuries, reviewed by W. W. Greg, 482-7.
- Mocket's catechism, 195-6.
- Monopolies of printers discussed, 209-12, 229-30, 419.
- Monro, Robert, his book on the wars of Germany privileged, 197-8.
- Moore, Philip, almanac by, described, 473.
- Moore, Robert, almanack writer, 458-9, 467.
- More, Sir Thomas, his works printed by Tottell, 205; reprint from this of his Dialogue, reviewed, 493 sq.

- Morison, S., his Review of recent typography, reviewed, 364-5.
- Morley, Thomas, privilege for music printing, 419.
- Myddylton, Wm., one of the first publishers of Road-tables, 350-1, 353, and facsimile; Tottell apprenticed to, 200.
- News pamphlets in prose and verse as fore-runners of newspapers, 285-8.
- Norton, J., his book-selling business in Edinburgh, 182-3; fined for refusing Rentership of Stationers' Company, 399; his bequest to it, 407.
- Nostradamus, Michael, almanacs (1562, 1567) by, described, 466 sq.
- Oathday (the Lord Mayor's), expenses of Stationers' Company for, 413.
- Osborne, L. E., paper on The Whitchurch compartment in London and Mexico, 303-11 (illus.); note by A. W. Pollard, 375-6.
- Oxford, Lord, and A hundred sundrie flowers, 126, 129.
- Oxford University Press, true date of commencement, 260.
- Pablos, Juan, first printer in Mexico, 120; copies Whitchurch compartment, 304-5; his printing career, 307-8.
- Paper, dimensions of, made with Jug or Pot, and Hand and Star watermarks, 462.
- Paper-mill projected by Tottell, 215-16.
- Partnerships in privileged printing, 421 sq.
- Peddle, R. A., his Printing, a short history, reviewed, 371-2.
- Petyt, Thos., one of the first publishers of Road-tables, 350-1.
- Play bills, claims of right to print, 414.
- Playing-cards, privilege for importing and making, 419.
- Plomer, H. R., reference to Caxton discovered by, 428.
- Poetry published 1591-4, 298-301.
- Polain, M. L., his Marques des imprimeurs . . . au XV^e siècle, reviewed, 269-70.
- Pollard, A. W., paper on Future work on the Short-Title Catalogue of Eng. Books (1475-1640), 377-94; note on dating of Editions of Marian Statutes, &c., 375 sq.; reviews of reprint of Horman's Vulgaria, 131-3; B. Chew's Essays ab. Books, 133-5; J. H. Beale's Bibliography of Early Eng. law books, 135-8; notices, 364-75, 491-4.
- Ponsonby, William, suit as to Sidney's Arcadia, 404.
- Postal service, early proclamations of, all lost, 352.
- Power, Sir D'Arcy, paper on The birth of mankind, or the woman's book: a bibliographical study (illustrated), 1-37.
- Prayers, privilege for books of, held by H. Denham, 420.
- Prices of books from a Scottish bookseller's seventeenth-century journal, 185-8.
- Printers of the Cronycle of yeres, 1541-61, tabulated, 350; of The birth of mankind, 31-7.
- Privileges for exclusive printing, 419.
- Protestant printers' stock-in-trade under Mary passes to Tottell and Wayland, 203-4.
- Rarity of books, statements should be checked by Book-Prices Current, 302; often due to dullness, 383.
- Rastell, Wm., books printed by Tottell, 204-5.
- Raynold, Thomas, translator and printer of The birth of mankind, 4-5, 10-11, 31-4.
- Red Bull company of players, 253-5.
- Rede, John, Caxton's English property assigned to, 429.
- Redman, Robert, links with Tottell, 200-2.
- Reed, A. W., his introduction and notes to reprint of More's Dialogue, 493-4.
- Reformation increases book trade in Scotland, 151.
- Resch, Conrad, introduced Basle style of decoration into Paris, 355-6.

- Road-books (1541-61), 349-54; routes discussed, 352.
- Roberts, James, fined for refusing Renter-ship of Stationers' Company, 399; almanacs printed for, 461.
- Robinson, Clement, his Handfull of Delights confiscated, 415.
- Robinson Crusoe, Two hitherto unrecorded editions of, paper by H. C. Hutchins, 58-72; Dublin piracy of part II, 61-7; sixth 12^o edition, 67-72.
- Roman roads mentioned in Caxton's, de Worde's, and Notary's Cronycles, 351.
- Röselin, Eucharius, and his Rosengarten, 2; first English translation, 2-3; first printed edition, 3-4 and figs. 1, 2.
- Rowlands, Samuel, his Letting of Humour's Blood, burnt, 415.
- Rowley, Wm., collaborator with Dekker, 42-3, 234-5, 237, 245, 253.
- Rye, R. A., third edition of his Students' guide to the Libraries of London, reviewed, 369-70.
- St. Andrews' early press, 146.
- St. Christopher mystery play (acted 1609), Star Chamber case, 41.
- Savage, R., his connexion with Dekker, 234-7, 246.
- Schilders, Richard, trouble with Stationers' Company, 416.
- Scholderer, V., his introduction to Greek printing types, reviewed, 361-4; reviews of K. Haebler's Handbuch der Inkunabelkunde, 141-2; Polain's Marques des imprimeurs . . . au XV^e siècle, and Juchhoff's Drucker- und Verlegerzeichen des XV. Jahrhunderts . . ., 269-70; Les subtiles fables d'Ésope, 271.
- Scott, Mrs. Sarah, bibliographical peculiarities of her History of Mecklenburg, 266-8.
- Scottish works printed in France, 151.
- Seville sent first printer and first type-founder to Mexico, 120.
- Shakespeare's titles in Stationers' Register, 278.
- Sheares, W., as editor of Marston's plays, 339, 343-7.
- Ships, Caxton engaged to hire, 444-6; money lent by Stationers' Company for providing, 411.
- Short-Title Catalogue of English Books, 1475-1640, Future Work on, paper by A. W. Pollard, 377-93; method on which the Catalogue was compiled, 378-9; reasons for its incompleteness, 380; for its sale to non-members, 381; help asked from librarians and book-sellers to improve it, 381-4; especially as to dating, 384-8; plan for its re-arrangement as Annals of English Printing, 388-90; what form a Full-Dress Catalogue should take, 391; help already given, 392 sq.; corrigenda to heading Almanacs, 463.
- Siberch, John, The Cambridge University Press and, paper by G. J. Gray, 260-3; date of arrival in Cambridge, 261.
- Sidney's Arcadia, pirated edition by Waldegrave, 183-4, 404 sq.
- Sisson, Charles, paper on Keep the widow waking: a lost play by Dekker, 39-57, 233-59; reviews McKerrow's Introduction to Bibliography, 478-80.
- Sparke, Michael, agent for Edinburgh books, 193-5.
- Stage and cases of libel, 39-42.
- Star Chamber cases for libel on stage, 39-43.
- Stationers' Company, the Decrees and Ordinances of the, 1576-1602, paper by W. W. Greg, 395-425; leave given by the Company for their publication by the Society, 395; the Company's procedure and organization, 397-413; special questions dealt with, 413-25; refusals to take office, 398 sq.; apprenticeships, 399 sq.; regulation of journeymen, 400-2; the Company's officers,

- 402 sq.; disputes between members, 403-5; charitable grants, 406-9; bequests to, 407-10; uses of Hall, 410; house property, 409-11; assessment for corn-money, 411 sq.; paving done for near its stand by Paul's, 412 sq.; regulation of type-founding, partnerships, &c., 414; awards in disputes, 414-16; relations with Privy-Council, 416 sqq.; patents and privileges, 420-3; copyrights, 423 sqq.
- Stationers' Register*, variations in methods of entry, 274-83.
- Stirling's early press, 146.
- Stow, John, grants from Stationers' Company, 414 sq.
- Stubs, Cancels and*, paper by R. W. Chapman, 264-8.
- Syms, Valentine, his right to print books formerly Bynneman's, 424.
- Tedder, H. R., on a general Catalogue of English Books (-1640), 378.
- Theological works published 1591-4, 291, 293-4.
- Thomas, H., review of M. Bollert's Lederschnittbände des XIV. Jahrhunderts, 138-41.
- Thomas, Thomas, first official University Printer at Cambridge, 263.
- Tindall, Nathaniel, and his story, part of the plot of Keep the widow waking, 43, 55-7.
- Tothill, alternative spelling for Tottell, 199.
- Tottell, Richard—his life and work*, paper by H. J. Byrom, 199-232; apprentice to Middleton, 200; acquired H. Smithe's printing-house, 200; associations with law printers, 200-13, 220-30; prosperity under Mary, 203-5; connexion with W. Rastell, 205; prints More's works, 205; his methods, 207-9; his monopolies challenged, 209-12; member of Stationers' Company, 212-13, 398 sq.; attempts to start a paper-mill, 215-16; as a landowner, 216-18; his family, 218; his connexions with C. Barker, 211, 218-19, 225-9; his non-legal printing, 213-15, 230-2; his Miscellany, 232.
- Tottell, Wm., and his struggle for the Abridgement, 225-9.
- Trent, Prof. W. P., his conjecture of a re-editing of Robinson Crusoe, 70-1.
- Type differences for scholarly and popular readers, 283-4.
- Utrecht, leave of residence granted to Caxton, 431-5.
- Vautrollier, T., his printing relations with Scotland, 152-3, 182.
- Vidoue, Pierre, influenced by Basle printers, 357, 358, 360.
- Waddell, H., her Wandering Scholars, noticed, 374-5.
- Waldegrave, R., and the Scottish book trade, 154-5, 183-4.
- Warboys, Witches of, 275, 291-2.
- Ward, B. M., letter on A hundreth sundrie flowres, 123-7; Dr. Greg's answer, 127-30.
- Ward, Roger, press and type defaced for irregular printing, 417 sq.
- Warner, William, Roger Ward punished for printing his Albion's England, 417.
- Watkins, Richard, prints The birth of mankind, 22, 23, 35.
- Wayland, John, and his printing under Mary, 204.
- Webster, John, as collaborator with Dekker, 243, 247-8; connexion with Marston's plays, 346.
- Wechel, Chrestien, succeeds Conrad Resch in Paris, 359.
- Westminster Abbey, entries of Caxton's payments of rent to, 452-4.
- Whitburch compartment, The, in London and Mexico*, paper by L. E. Osborne, 303-11; its history in Mexico, 304-6; in London, 303-4, 306-7; connecting

- links, 309-11; note by A. W. Pollard, 375-6.
- Whitefelde, John, compiler of catalogue of Dover Priory, 74; indexed books in the Library, 75; translation of his prefaces, 77-9; classification, 81; his index discussed, 81-115.
- Wills of Scottish printers and booksellers, 156-81.
- Wilson, F. P., his Plague in Shakespeare's London, noticed, 365-6.
- Wolf, John, contracts with Stationers' Company, 402; occupies rooms at their Hall, 409; probably had a press there, 410; debt remitted, 424.
- Wynn (of Gwydir) papers, 1515-1600, Calendar of, reviewed, 366-7.
- Year's Work in English Studies*, VI, noticed, 374.
- Yetsweirt, Charles, relations with Tottell, 220, 223, 227-30; privilege for law printing, 419.